SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL. ITS SCOPE AND ORIGIN.

The near approach of the annual Bazaar of the St. Vincent de Paul's Society, so deservingly popular, tends to raise the question: What is this Society which appeals to us so forcibly for support, whence did it come; what is its scope and what work is it doing in our midst?

In the first place it must be noted that it is not a mere philanthropic society distributing so much as to the poor. It is not a benevolent Society aiming only at relief of distress, but a Society which has a twofold aim (the one dovetailing into the other and incapable of being extricated from it) the uplifting of the poor on the one hand—morally and spiritually—and the sanctification of its members through visitation of the poor. Our Lord and Master, who told us that whatever we do to the poor in His name He will take as being done to Him—Christian charity accordingly sees Christ in the poor; in succouring them we feel we are ministering to Him, and thus sanctifying our own souls by coming in contact with the poor. It is no part therefore of the work of a member of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul to delegate relief to the poor, to subscribe to him and let someone else distribute it; he must come himself into personal contact with the poor, and by thus learning their wants at first hand, becoming intimate with them, growing to appreciate those wonderful virtues of faith, patience, endurance, and optimism they possess and learning to sympathise with them in their many hardships, learn to elevate himself while he endeavours to elevate them. It was in this way, apparently, Our Lord wished the world to be convinced of His teaching through His disciples: "by this shall men know you are my disciples, because you have love (yes love, not philanthropy) one for another"; let your light shine before men; "by their works you shall know them."

It was this last quotation, indeed, which gave birth to the Society. It came about in this way.

The founder of the Society was a very remarkable Frenchman, Frederick Ozanam, born in 1813. After a brilliant career at school he early left his home in Lyons to go to Paris to study law and literature, afterwards becoming a famous lecturer at the Sorbonne. At a very early age—when he was barely 17—he had become with his specially acute and brilliant intellect, the victim in serious doubts as to the truth of that Christianity in which he had been nurtured; he endured bitter assaults against his faith, but eventually overcame them, and when his doubts, after a long conflict, had been set to rest, and peace of mind had returned to him, his resolution, as he was to devote his future life to the defence of Christianity against the assaults of the infidels who, then as now, were in France numerous, active and noisy. His brilliant talents soon brought him to the notice of such celebrities as Lamartine, Montalembert and Chateaubriand; but it was a difficult task to which he had set his hand, to combat the continuous assaults against the Church made by the professors in the university and schools of Paris who were almost all infidels or atheists. The few Catholic students were timid, unorganised and overawed; but gradually Ozanam gathered a number of them around him, because their recognised leader, and soon made their influence felt. Then a battle-royal—a battle of intellects—began. The Frenchman is nothing if not extreme; he is either a saint or the reverse. As Pius IX. wisely said: "There are no Frenchmen in Purgatory; there are all either in heaven or hell!" In a "Conference of History" that Ozanam and his fellow students joined, fierce debates took place, and when Ozanam pointed to the great work for civilization the Church had accomplished in the past, he was met by the taunt "Yes, but that was in the past, but now the Church and Christianity is effete; what is she doing now; show us your works." You see, it was the very proof Our Lord had given—"by their works you shall know them."

It was then that the little band of students—only eight in number—met together in private and asked each other: "Yes, what are we doing? We talk but what do we do?" And they resolved, with- out to do as well as argue, and by visiting the poor in their homes, bringing relief to them in personal service, and endeavouring not only to ameliorate their hard lot materially but to uplift them morally and spiritually to confront their enemies. Thus was the great and world-wide Society of St. Vincent de Paul started by eight humble students in an upper room of a sordid street in Paris. It sounds very much like the beginning of Christianity itself.

They were ignorant as to how to set about their newly imposed task, but one of their number came to their help, by introducing to them a Sister Rosalia, a Sister of Charity, who taught them how to proceed in their visits to the poor. She belonged to these great institutions of charity founded by the brilliant St. Vincent de Paul, who, in the brilliant reign of Louis XIV., used to go about the sordid streets of Paris at night and pick up the poor orphans and children who were often left there abandoned. She was familiar with the homes of the poor in the miserable slums of Paris, and inspired by her teaching and example, Ozanam and his companions placed the little society under the name and patronage of the great Saint of Charity.

A T.L.S. 2,500 LEGACY. GOES TO B. P. SCOUTS.

The destination of a T.L.S. 2,500 legacy made to the now defunct Boys' Brigade by the late James Tulloch in 1907 was decided last week by Mr. Skinner Turner, Acting Judge, in H. M. Supreme Court at Shanghai, the award being made in favour of the Baden-Powell Scouts, the only applicants. Mr. E. L. Hartopp appeared for the trustees, Messrs. T. E. Newman and W. F. Inglis, Mr. E. P. Wilkison as Crown Advocate, and Mr. H. Browett for the Baden-Powell Scouts. Mr. Hartopp explained the circumstances concerning the legacy. The Boys' Brigade, he said, ceased to exist in or about 1913 and had been succeeded by several similar institutions. The Crown Advocate had made inquiries and had filed an affidavit in the matter. The Boys' Brigade had not been confined to British boys. Mr. Browett called Mr. I. D. Macdonald who spoke to the Baden-Powell Scouts organisation having the same objects and principles as the Boys' Brigade. His Lordship gave judgment in favour of the B. P. Scouts, costs to come out of the trust fund.

destined to be world-wide. In Hongkong itself, so far away from the parent stem, it was founded as far back as 1885, only 13 years after Ozanam's death. Nor has it with its spread lost sight of its first ideals, but is evermore faithful to the "Rule" of its founder, framed shortly after its first coming into existence. It is in the best sense of the word a "social" institution, for while it visits the poor wherever there is need, irrespective of race, nationality or creed, its membership is open to all classes of Catholics alike, no distinction of class being permitted in its conference. Of this the example may be quoted of an Irish bank clerk who was fond of relating how in his conference in London the member who sat at their meetings beside him and who accompanied him in his visits to the poor was the Marquis of Eipon, a Minister of the Crown. Here in Hongkong, too, one of its early and most active members, still well remembered, was a distinguished member of the Bar—the late Mr. Francis, Q.C.
Such is the Society, and such its aim and principles, which will soon be appealing for support in its annual bazaar from all sections of the community—The Rock.

MATCHES FOR TO-DAY

HONGKONG LEAGUE: DIVISION I.

2nd Willehires v. H.M.S. Ambrose, Sookunpoo ground, 4 p.m. Referee, Mr. Prager.

Hongkong Police v. Kowloon Navy "A" ground, 4 p.m. Referee, Mr. Evans.

DIVISION II.

Hongkong Club Reserves v. St. Joseph's College, Club ground, 2.30 p.m. Referee, Mr. Evans.

Staff and Dept. v. Club de Recreo, Sookunpoo ground, 2.30 p.m. Referee, Mr. Holliday.

R.G.A. Reserves v. S.C.A. Reserves, Navy "B" ground, 2.30 p.m. Referee, Mr. Chomsky.

Oilers United v. Indian Recreation Club, S.C.A. ground, 2.30 p.m. Referee, Mr. Robson.

Kowloon Reserves v. 22nd Punjab, Navy "A" ground, 2.30 p.m. Referee, Mr. Wells.

H.M.S. Castles having left the station temporarily, the following matches are postponed:—Division I, H.M.S. Castles v. H.M.S. Tamar; Division II, H.M.S. Castles Res. v. United.

A great game is expected to take place on the Club ground. The S.C.A. have always given a good account of themselves on this ground and this season they are stronger than in the past. Their forwards are dangerous when within shooting range and their defence is very sound. The Club are fielding a very strong side and it will be a very fast and even game, for on both sides the defence is superior to the attack, so a goal-less draw should be the result.

On the military ground at Sookunpoo, the Willehires are at home to the Ambrose who will be without their usual centre forward, Hammond and their brilliant Captain Sargent. The Willehires will be at full strength. Meham, who did not turn out against the Kowloon men, will be in the centre forward position and a good game is expected. This ground has now been enlarged to bring it into line with the League grounds in Happy Valley.

Kowloon will have the Hongkong Police and their opponents on the Navy ground, and, as the Police are strengthening their team this week by the inclusion of Alexander, a very keen game, with the Kowloon men winning by a narrow margin is expected.

The Club Reserves and St. Joseph's meet on the Club ground at 2.30 p.m. where the St. Joseph's should obtain their first points in the League. The Club defence without Gerrard, will be weak, and the bright forwards of the College will have a good time. If the Club are able to turn out the forward line they played last week, they should give the College a fairly even game.

The Staffs will have difficult problem if they expect to annex a point to-day, as the Club de Recreo are just now playing a sound game. Scouler the Staffs back, who was absent last week, will be out and thereby strengthen the team.

The R.G.A. Reserves should add to their points in the League table to-day.

An even game should take place on the old military ground at the Valley where the Indians will meet the Oilers.

The Kowloon Reserves should win their match against the Punjab on the Navy "A" ground.

The Charity match, advertised for Monday 8th, on the Club ground (kick off at 4 p.m.) should be well patronised as the match has been arranged by the South China Athletic Association in aid of the North China Famine Fund. A good game is expected.

H.K. F.C. v. SOUTH CHINA

The following have been selected to represent the Club in a league match to-day against the South China A.C. on the Club Ground kick off 4 p.m. sharp:—G. Rodgers (Capt.), J. Rodgers, J. W. R. McPhail, L. Goldenberg, H. Day, M. Sandberg, E. Moore, and B. Rida.

KOWLOON v. POLICE

The following team will represent the Kowloon Football Club in their league match to-day, on the Navy ground at 4 p.m.:—W. Crocker, P. Wheeler and T. Knight; C. Millard, A. Weyman, and P. Beasley; W. Taylor, B. Peaco, F. Evelyn, R. Townsend, and F. Cleve.

H.K. F.C. 2nd XI v. ST. JOSEPH'S COLLEGE

The following will represent the H.K. Football Club 2nd XI against the St. Joseph's College on the Club Ground to-day, kick off 2.30 p.m. sharp:—G. Gross, C. Wilkie, M. Tonkin, W. Ireland, J. Dodd, L. Sorensen, E. Ballon, G. Mow, A. Boyson, R. B. Logan, and J. P. Sherry.

HONGKONG LICENSING BOARD

A meeting of the Licensing Board was held at 12.15 p.m., yesterday, in the Council Chamber. The Hon. Mr. A. G. M. Fletcher, O.B.E., Acting Colonial Secretary, presided, and there were also present Messrs. A. R. Lowe, T. F. Hough, M. S. Northcote, A. Denison, C. D. Melbourne and C. Wilson (secretary).

The CHAIRMAN stated that there was only one application for a new form of licence, the applicant being Mr. Joe Yamahawa. He thought that, apart from that, the Board was unanimously in favour of the renewals. Mr. H. J. White had asked for a new licence for the Regulus Bay Hotel in place of Mr. J. H. Taggart, who formerly held the licence.

Mr. Northcote wished to know why Mr. Taggart should not continue to have the licence in his name.

The CHAIRMAN replied that he was the General Manager of the Hotel. Mr. White's application was supported by the Hotel Directorate. Mr. White lived on the premises.

Mr. Northcote mentioned that the managers of the Peak Hotel was absent.

Mr. Lowe replied that she was in Shanghai and would be away for a few days.

The CHAIRMAN said that a medical certificate had been received stating that the managers required a change of about two weeks. He did not think it was a matter of great importance.

Mr. Lowe wished to know what had happened to the Stag Hotel as it had not applied for a licence.

The CHAIRMAN replied that the Stag Hotel had been given a Chinese restaurant licence.

The following renewals were then passed: Publican's licence to the Regulus Bay Hotel, the Hongkong Hotel, the King Edward Hotel, the Astor House Hotel and the Palace Hotel.

Hotel-keeper's adjacent licences to the Peak Hotel, the Station Hotel, the Tokyo Hotel, the Chitose Hotel, the Shokudokan Hotel, the Suehiro Hotel.

Restaurant keeper's adjacent licences to Wiseman's Limited, the Iroha Hotel, Alexander Cafe, Tankinoya and the Harunoya Hotel.

THE YAMAKAWA HOTEL

In regard to the application of the Yamakawa Hotel for a hotel-keeper's adjacent licence, the CHAIRMAN stated that the proprietor wished to change the restaurant keeper's licence into a hotel-keeper's licence. The proprietor was before the Board in August last when the licence was refused on the ground that it was unnecessary for the hotel business that the manager should do more than sell intoxicating liquors at meals.

The manager replied that he had a whole floor unoccupied, which could be turned into four rooms.

Mr. Hough wished to know if the hotel had permanent boarders and received a reply that the boarders were Japanese residents of Hongkong living with him permanently.

Mr. Northcote wished to know if much liquor was sold to people living in the hotel and received a negative reply.

After considering the matter, the CHAIRMAN announced that the Board considered that in view of the small number of residents in the hotel, a hotel-keeper's adjacent licence was not required. The hotel would be given the restaurant keeper's licence.

This terminated the meeting of the Board.

KOWLOON RESERVES v. 22nd PUNJAB

The following will represent Kowloon in their match to-day at 2.30 p.m. on the Navy ground:—H. McKay, S. Hower and K. Mason; J. Coupland, G. White, and C. Mackenzie; A. Spary, E. Alderson, J. Castwell, A. Young, and A. Estoffe. Reserve: A. Martin.

CRAIGENGOWER v. POLICE

The following will represent Craigengower C.C. in a friendly match against the Police on Monday, the 8th inst., on the Police Ground, commencing at 10.45 a.m.:—H. Holdman, K. Drake, C. Tache, F. Lawrence, E. Lambie, G. White, F. Tillman, B. Dixon, H. Brown, B. Harris, and F. Thompson (captain).

EUROPEAN LADY VICTIMIZED

HAND-BAG SNATCHED

At the Magistracy yesterday, before Mr. N. L. Smith, Mrs. Pope charged a Chinese with snatching a hand-bag containing $200 from her opposite the Central Market on Wednesday afternoon.

It was stated in evidence that immediately Mrs. Pope felt a tug on the hand-bag, which she was carrying on her arm, she turned round and grabbed the defendant. She saw him pass the bag to another man who ran away. Mrs. Pope very pluckily stuck to the defendant until a constable came to her assistance. The bag has not been recovered.

The Magistrate sentenced the defendant to six months' hard labour and 3 strokes of the birch.

CHARGE AGAINST RICKSHA COOLIE

NOT REPORTING LOST PROPERTY

Inspector Ken charged a ricksha coolie, yesterday, before Mr. G. N. Orme, at the Magistracy, with the theft of a parcel which was left in his vehicle by Mr. E. Godden, who is employed on one of H.M. submarines. According to the evidence, Mr. Godden engaged the ricksha at Happy Valley and drove to Praya East where he left the vehicle and left his parcel behind. The defendant went away with it. When Mr. Godden missed his parcel later, he reported at No. 2 Police Station. Enquiries were made, and the defendant was traced. The defendant said that he did not know the parcel was in the vehicle or he would have returned it to Mr. Godden.

Remarking that the defendant should have taken the parcel to the nearest Police Station, as soon as he discovered it in the ricksha, the Magistrate sentenced him to a fine of $10 or 14 days' hard labour.

TROUBLE OF AN ESTHONIAN

DID NOT LIKE SINGAPORE

An Esthonian was charged before Mr. G. N. Orme, at the Magistracy, yesterday, with having been found in the Colony without employment or visible means of subsistence.

The defendant: Where was I found?

Inspector Spear, who prosecuted, informed the Magistrate that the defendant was sent to Hongkong by the Singapore police by the Yamaguchi.

The defendant: Nobody found me, I was never lost! (Laughter).

Explaining the case to the Magistrate, the Inspector said that the defendant first came to Hongkong about four months ago. He stayed away at Shanghai. He was sent back to Shanghai, but turned up again within a fortnight. He was sentenced to one month's hard labour, and then taken before the Russian Consul, and it was decided to send him to Singapore. The Russian Consul paid half of the expenses, and the Government the other half. The Singapore police refused to allow him to land, and sent him back to Hongkong. The Inspector asked that the defendant be sent to the House of Detention, pending further enquiries.

Defendant: I do not know why I was ever sent to Singapore.

The Magistrate: To find work.

Defendant: I do not like Singapore, and the people there do not like me. I came from Siberia to Shanghai. I could not find work there, so came to Hongkong. I meant to find work here. I am willing to work. My only object was to return to my own country. I had no unlawful intentions.

The Magistrate: But you cannot stay away.

Defendant: If they won't give me work, what can I do? It is no use your sending me in and out of Hongkong. I want to go home. From what I can see at present, I am going backwards instead of forward.

The Magistrate committed the defendant to the House of Detention.

Defendant: I suppose you will keep me here all my life. You will probably send me by sending me to a mad house! (Laughter).

The Magistrate: No, the police will try and find work for you.

The defendant left the Court in company with Sergeant Stimson still grumbling.

A FIRE ON THE "FATSHAN"

A fire broke out in the stewards' room of the Hongkong, Canton, and Macao Steamboat Company's s.s. Fatshan at 9.15 o'clock on the morning of November 3rd after the steamer had discharged all her passengers at the wharf on the West Bund, Canton. The steward's room and the second engineer's room were completely burnt out, and the chief engineer's room was damaged. The cause of the fire is unknown. The fire brigade of the Sun Company Ltd. opposite the wharf, says the Canton Times, rendered valuable aid in preventing the fire from spreading to other rooms.

Four men, armed with choppers, resided the dwelling of a Chinese engineer in Chin-yang on Wednesday night. They gained entrance by forcing open the door. One of the men hit the engineer on the head with the flat part of a chopper and the quartette then ransacked the premises and stole clothing to the value of $24.

PIRATE GANG BUSY

TWO JUNKS FIRED ON

TWO WOMEN KILLED: FIVE PERSONS INJURED

An exciting fight between the private gang—whose activities were reported in Thursday's paper—and two junks on Wednesday last has resulted in the death of two women, and serious injury to five others. This news was brought to Hongkong yesterday, by the masters of two cargo junks, aggregating 2,300 tons capacity.

The masters reported to the Police that at about 4 a.m. on Wednesday while the two junks were proceeding together in the direction of Pinghai, in Chinese waters, they were hailed by some men in a launch who ordered them to stop. They refused, fearing that the men in the launch might be pirates. Their fears were well-founded, for non-compliance with the order resulted in a fusillade of shots being fired at the two junks. The two junks returned the fire with cannon and musket fire. A running fight ensued for over half an hour when the attack of the launch was repulsed. It is not known whether any of the pirates were hit, but an inspection of the passengers on the two junks ended in the discovery of the death of two women, and serious injuries to a woman, a boy and three men. The junks hurried to Hongkong where, on arrival, the dead were removed to the mortuary and the wounded to hospital. Police launches have set off in various directions in the hope of coming up with the pirate launch.

GENERAL CHEN CHING MING

SEVERAL ORDERS ISSUED

The Military Government, under the administration of the three Cantonese Administrative Directors, has appointed General Chen Ching-ming Civil Governor of Kwangtung and concurrently Commander-in-Chief of Cantonese troops, thus formally abolishing the Tuchun system.

General Chen Ching-ming has decided to confiscate the property of Yang Wing-tai and Shan Hung Yung in Canton, as they have "squeezed" a considerable amount from the Canton Government during their term of office here.

Commander Wong Chi Woo of the Cantonese troops in Yanchow and Lingchow is making preparation for the attack of Nanking, Kwangsi.

General Chen Ching-ming has telegraphed to the three Cantonese Administrative Directors in Shanghai stating that the situation in Canton is gradually returning to normal and their presence in Canton will hasten matters for the constitutional cause.

General Chen Ching-ming has sent an order to inspect the various government offices in Canton.

For the improvement of Canton political affairs, Dr. Sun Yat-sen will shortly leave Shanghai for Canton, according to reports to hand.

General Chen Ching-ming has planned to instruct all the inhabitants of the several districts of Kwangtung not to accept the Kwangsi notes in order not to disturb the money market in Canton. Canton Times.

THE CHINESE POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANK

REPORT ON SIX MONTHS' WORKING

We have received from the Directorate General of Posts, at Peking, a copy of a Report on the working of the Chinese Post Office Savings Bank for the year 1935.

Post Office Savings Banks were opened on July 1st, 1910 at seven district head offices, viz., Peking, Tientsin, Taiyuan, Kaifeng, Tsinan, Hankow, Nanchang, Nanking, Shanghai, Anking, and Hangchow. On October 15th of the same year the Post Office Savings Bank system was extended to 20 steamship ports and second class offices, and sub-offices in the above named eleven districts, and on December 1st last a Savings Bank was opened at Moukden.

The General statement of deposits and withdrawals shows $154,061 deposited and $46,536 withdrawn during the six months under review, the deposits exceeding the withdrawals by $107,525, interest excluded.

From the statements concerning Pass-books it is seen that the Post Office Savings Bank is mainly patronised by officials, Postal employees, students, and merchants, while patrons among the farmers and shopkeepers are few, chiefly because the Post Office Savings Bank is not yet well-known to the great mass of the population.

The Directors-General, Mr. Leon Fou Cheng and Mr. H. Picard Destelan, in their general remarks on the financial statements say: "In view of the slow rate of progress in China, it cannot be expected that an institution like a Post Office Savings Bank can flourish at once, but signs of progress are already visible. The figures given in all the above-named statements only show the results up to the end of December, 1935; since that date several additional Savings Banks have been opened in different parts of the country. As China's vast territory with its enormous population is opened up, and reforms are carried out, the people should turn more and more to the Post Office Savings Bank as a reliable institution in which to deposit their savings."

The decomposed body of a Chinese was picked up in the harbour on Thursday. The deceased, who was dressed in white cotton coat and trousers, with blue stripes, had the appearance of a Kwangsi soldier.

General Chen Ching-ming, the Commander-in-Chief of the Cantonese Army, is reported to favour the movement for attacking Kwangsi. The Military Government has already appointed a General to take supreme command of an expedition against Kwangsi.

THE UNKNOWN WARRIOR. INSCRIPTION ON THE COFFIN.

LONDON, November 3rd.

It has now been arranged that the body of the unknown warrior, who will be buried in Westminster Abbey on November 11th, will be conveyed to England, by the destroyer Verdun on November 10th, and repose in a temporary chapel at Victoria station overnight.

The inscription on the coffin will be "A British Warrior, who fell in the Great War of 1914-1918 for King and Country."

SOVIET SUBMARINES.

LORD CURZON'S REPLY TO M. KRASSIN.

LONDON, November 3rd.

Lord Curzon has replied to M. Krassin's Note stating that the belief of the British Government regarding the aggressive intentions of Soviet submarines is based on the open avowal of a Soviet Minister, when launching a submarine in the Black Sea, that he hoped it would sink an Entente vessel.

Lord Curzon adds that the Government's fears were confirmed by the vague statement contained in M. Krassin's Note whereby the Soviet submarine commander, who desired to torpedo British ships, would be provided with an excuse of mistaken identity.

Lord Curzon further points out that the Soviet in the Black Sea are still engaged in open hostility against British interests in which the submarines may, at any time, be engaged.

EAST AFRICA CURRENCY.

EFFECT OF SUBSTITUTION OF FLORIN FOR RUPEE.

LONDON, November 3rd.

In the House of Commons, replying to Mr. Jesson, who drew attention to the damaging effect to the producers in East Africa of the change of the exchange with India, Colonel Amery stated that the rupee for which the florin was being substituted was stabilised at one-tenth of £1 in Kenya, Uganda and Tanganyika at a time when the value of the rupee in India was raised to one-tenth of a gold sovereign. He saw no reason to suppose that the exchange value of the Indian rupee will remain permanently below the two-shillings, and he was not prepared to sacrifice the advantage to East Africa of a stable exchange and a definite association with the sterling because of a temporary depression in the Indian exchange.

MISS SYLVIA PANKHURST. RELEASED ON BAIL.

FRENCH NATIONAL DEBT. STEADY PROCESS OF REPAYMENT.

PARIS, October 30th.

A Havas message says:—
That the work of repaying the National Debt is well under way is illustrated by the appearance of a new heading, "Amortisation Account", in the banks of France in their weekly statement. The amount on the credit side reaches for the week nearly fourteen millions francs, which figure, it is expected, will now increase steadily.

GREAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE SATISFACTORY PROGRESS OF NEGOTIATIONS.

PARIS, November 1st.

A Havas message says:—
Le Temps expresses deep satisfaction at the favourable turn the Anglo-French negotiations, regarding the best way to ensure the Peace Treaty being carried out, have taken, and the friendly spirit in which the negotiations are conducted, concluding that the efforts which are being made in some quarters in Great Britain in favour of Germany are not likely to meet the support of public opinion. The interest of both nations being obviously to settle quietly any little differences and leave untouched the result of their common sacrifices.

Are you liverish?

A common accompaniment of "liveriness" is a feeling of despondency and irritability. Little things, that ordinarily would not disturb you, get magnified out of all proportion to their importance. Perhaps you have throbbing headaches, or blurred vision. Or you may be troubled with biliousness and depression. All this comes about because the liver is not doing its work properly. What is wanted is an effective liver corrector and tonic, and there is no better help for a tired and overworked liver and stomach than Mother's Syrup, made from the medicinal extracts of more than ten varieties of roots, barks and leaves. Just 30 drops in water, taken after meals, will make all the difference in your well-being. Test Mother's Syrup for yourself, and prove its worth.
